RULES AND REGULATIONS

Temporary members are required to provide proof of a return flight ticket. The travel dates must correspond with the approved duration of the temporary membership.

Children aged 18 years and older are not included under a temporary family membership and are required to apply for their own single temporary membership.

Direct family members are defined as grandparents, grandchildren, children, parents, brothers, and sisters.

Non-direct family members include cousins, friends, and in-laws.

There is currently no limit on the number of times a member may apply for a temporary membership. However, a specific temporary applicant (or applicant's family/couple) is permitted a maximum of three (3) months of temporary membership per membership year (1 September – 31 August).

ACCESS RULES AND USE OF TEMPORARY CARDS:

1. Temporary members must present their temporary pass at reception upon every visit
2. Temporary Passes are strictly non-transferable
3. Participation in sporting activities are subject to prior approval
4. Temporary Membership Cards cannot be topped up in the same manner as regular membership cards and are therefore not eligible for membership discounts
5. Temporary members may use the Clubs facilities but are not permitted to sign in Guests ,all temporary members need to collect the gym access card to access the gym

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Any Violation of these rules and regulations, including breaches related to access or misuse of membership privileges, will result in immediate termination of the member's Temporary Membership.

In such cases, the Member and their guests may also be subject to a ban from the Bahrain Rugby Club.
